The Parchment Maze (Paperback)

By Ludmila Filipova

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Parchment Maze by the best-selling author Ludmila Filipova is an archival suspense thriller, which topped national best-seller lists for years and which is currently in its sixth reprinting. In 2012, National Geographic made a film based on the book and featuring the author, entitled Sword in the Stone the Orpheus Amulet. The novel combines shocking archeological evidence plus a healthy jolt of fantasy. The Parchment Maze itself has a curious history - created in 2007 by Ludmila Filipova and published in January of 2009, could its sensational discoveries be the true and unacknowledged source of the literary angel-mania that swept the globe? The Parchment Maze offers readers a totally new way to look at human history and theories about the different ones. Some see them as saints and deities, while great artists such as Ovid, Dante and Orpheus described them as shades. Thousands of others have called them angels, but few have ever descended to the bowels of the earth to discover their true faces. Today, however, for the first time, a human being is close...
