The Prince and the Potter is the tale of Prince Ananda's journey to awakening. The story begins with Ananda enjoying a life of luxury and follows him as he departs from the palace to become a Buddhist monk in a forest monastery. Here he is brought under the tutelage of the wise abbot Kondanna, through whom he learns the essence of the Buddha's teachings. But these teachings require him to leave the monastery in order to follow his own path to enlightenment. Along the way, he meets his soul mate, Anjali, and discovers his creative voice. The Prince and the Potter is at once insightful and entertaining, a must read for all who are embarking on the spiritual path. The Prince and the Potter is a concise but essential piece of literature that conveys the true insight of the dharma. - Rev. Truong Thach Dhammo, abbot of Khmer Kampuchea Krom Buddhist Temple, and member of the Buddhist delegation to the United Nations The Prince and the Potter weaves the timeless wisdom of Buddhist philosophy into an imaginative dreamlike tale. - Brian Henry, instructor, Ryerson University.
