For the many fans of Randall Mawers first novel, Frogs Field, his new teen fiction novel, Is Roy Home is a long-awaited treat. Roy Hough, Frog Motts best friend, is now a high school student as is another of Frogs friends, Arthur Shell. Roy is a star of his high school baseball team while Arthur is a loner, befriended only by Roy and Connie Dunn, Roys friend and the female manager of the boys baseball team. The story follows the fortunes of Roys high school team through a season, Arthurs blossoming into a sociable young grownup, the burgeoning relationship between Roy and Connie and the role all three of the young friends find themselves in when Roys mother inherits a house and money and becomes a potential victim of a young tennis pro who wants to take advantage of her. This is a story of small-town, Midwest America in the 1950s with all the endearing qualities that make that memories of that era remain in the minds of many as one of our countrys last times of innocence. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
